The above-referenced application was unintentionally abandoned for failure to file a timely and proper reply to an Office action by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. The date of abandonment is the day after the expiration date of the period set for reply in the office action plus any extensions of time actually obtained.

The Office action to which Applicant's representatives failed (but attempted) to reply was a final Office action mailed on September 27, 2005, having an extended deadline for reply of March 27, 2006. Applicant's representatives attempted to file via facsimile a reply in the form of a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) with a submission including claim amendments. However, Applicant's representatives inadvertently did not notice that the facsimile transmission was not successful. Applicant's representatives first learned of a potential abandonment on April 28, 2006. Applicant submits that there was no deliberate choice to abandon this application or to delay seeking revival of this application, and that such abandonment was unintentional.

SF-2125002

28, 2006. Applicant submits that there was no deliberate choice to abandon this application or to delay seeking revival of this application, and that such abandonment was unintentional.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.137(b), Applicant petitions to revive this application, and provides the following:

(1) a reply required to the outstanding Office action;

- Applicant's representatives have included with this petition an RCE containing claim amendments. Applicant submits that this RCE and its accompanying submission meet the requirements for the reply to the then-final Office action of September 27, 2005. The RCE is submitted with a request for a 3 month extension of time, the maximum that would have been available under 37 CFR 1.136.

(2) the petition fee set forth in Section 1.17(m); and

(3) a statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date of the reply until the filing of this petition was unintentional.

Applicant submits that the above-referenced application was filed after June 8, 1995, and that no terminal disclaimer is required.

Statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date of the reply until the filing of this petition was unintentional:

The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of this grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional.

Conclusion

Applicant submits that the foregoing comprises a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b). Applicant therefore respectfully requests that the present application be revived. Applicant also requests that the enclosed RCE be entered and the submission therewith considered.

In the unlikely event that the transmittal letter is separated from this document and the Patent Office determines that an extension and/or other relief is required, Applicants petition for any required relief including extensions of time and authorize the Assistant Commissioner to charge the cost of such petitions and/or other fees due in connection with the filing of this document to Deposit Account No. 03-1952 referencing docket no. 324212009600.
